"The future we entrust to God's Fatherly Providence."
Msgr. Hugh O'Connor, May, 1983

Excerpts from an article Fr. Hugh O'Connor wrote for the Dec. 11, 1976 Anaheim Bulletin newspaper:

"As for me, my life is already being poured out like a libation. The time is come for me to be gone." (2 Tim.
4:6). In these words St. Paul expresses his readiness to accept his approaching martyrdom, for him the consummation of his worthwhile labors. He could review his life with a smile of satisfaction and be content in the knowledge that he had fought the good fight and was awaiting the victor's crown.

... To face the end of one's life with serenity is to hold fast to faith in the love of God. The Father who created us awaits our return. The fears of old age and death are burdens which are natural to us. However, faith in Christ allows us to go beyond these fears and in freedom, long for the perfection of our life in the love of God.

Monsignor Hugh O'Connor, affectionately known to family as "Father Hugh", died peacefully at St. John's Health Center, Santa Monica, on December 20, 2007. He was born in Sneem, County Kerry, Ireland, on November 19, 1914. He was ordained a Priest in All Hallows Seminary, Dublin, in June, 1939.
His priestly Ministry was spent in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and the Diocese of Orange. His first assignment was at Holy Angels, Arcadia, then at St. Brigid's, Los Angeles, for 13 years, and at Immaculate Heart of Mary, Hollywood until his appointment as Founding Pastor of St. Justin Martyr Parish.

Arriving in Anaheim on May 15, 1958, Msgr. O'Connor acquired the existing Sacred Heart Mission Church.
He immediately began preparations for opening the new St. Justin Martyr Parish and rented a warehouse which would be the temporary location of the church for fifteen months. During that time he oversaw the building of the new church and school, but more importantly, became the driving force for building the community of parishioners. Under his leadership and guidance many spiritual,
educational, and social organizations were established,
many of which continue today. During his forty-two years as pastor, he directed all changes and improvements on the property, including the building of a parish hall, convent, rectory, and office buildings. He also oversaw the Church's changes, including Vatican II
revisions and increased lay participation in the liturgy.
He was the spiritual leader for the many priests that served with him and for countless individuals and families that have received Sacraments from him and were forever touched by his presence. Even after his retirement in 1990, he continued to say Mass, administer the Sacraments, and visit the sick. He provided great consolation to those in need, and spent his last three years as a resident of Nazareth House in Los Angeles.

Msgr., who preferred to be called "Father O'Connor", enjoyed his travels to Ireland, playing cards, golf, Irish soccer, and Notre Dame football. On his last visit to St. Justin's on the occasion of his 93rd birthday, he sang a heartfelt rendition of his Irish favorite: "Danny Boy" to all present. However, favorite thing in life was the Priesthood, which enabled him to help people be closer to God, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the saints.
His was a joy-filled Priesthood.

He is survived by his sister, Sr. Mary of Mercy; his nephew James; his nieces, Peggy, Mary and Joan; and many cousins, relatives, parishioners, and friends.

The LORD has sworn and will not waver:
"Like Melchizedek you are a priest forever." Psalm 110

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Isaiah 26:6a, 7-9

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide for all peoples. On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples, the web that is woven over all nations; he will destroy death forever. The Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces; the reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the Lord has spoken.

On that day it will be said: "Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us! This is the Lord for whom we looked; let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!" The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 23

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit. R.

He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort. R.

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. R.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life; In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. R.

Second Reading: Revelations 14:13

I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Yes," said the Spirit, 'let them find rest from their labors, for their works accompany them.' The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Gospel Reading: John 14:1-6

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way."

Thomas said to him, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?"

Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

Homily

General Intercessions

Priest: God, the almighty Father, raised Christ his Son from the dead; with confidence we ask him to save all his people, living and dead:

For Msgr. O'Connor, who in baptism was given the pledge of eternal life, that he may now be admitted to the company of the saints. We pray to the Lord.

R. Lord, hear our prayer.

For our brother who ate the body of Christ, the bread of life, that he may be raised up on the last day. We pray to the Lord. R.

For our brother, Msgr. O'Connor, who served the Church as a priest, that he may be given a place in the liturgy of heaven. We pray to the Lord. R.

For our deceased relatives and friends, especially Monsignor's brother, Jeremiah; sister, Joan; and his parents and grandparents, that they may have the reward of their goodness. We pray to the Lord. R.

For those who have fallen asleep in the hope of rising again, that they may see God face to face. We pray to the Lord. R.

For the family, friends, and fellow parishioners of Monsignor O'Connor, that they may be consoled in their grief by the Lord, who wept at the death of his friend Lazarus. We pray to the Lord. R.

For all of us assembled here to worship in faith, that we may be gathered together again in God's kingdom. We pray to the Lord. R.

Priest: God, our shelter and our strength, you listen in love to the cry of your people: hear the prayers we offer for our departed brothers and sisters. Cleanse them of their sins and grant them the fullness of redemption. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.
